

Semester 1: The Revelation of Jesus Christ in Scripture

The purpose of this course is to give students a general knowledge and appreciation of the Sacred Scriptures. Through their study of the Bible they will come to encounter the living Word of God, Jesus Christ. In the course they will learn about the Bible, authored by God through Inspiration, and its value to people throughout the world. If they have not been taught this earlier, they will learn how to read the Bible and will become familiar with the major sections of the Bible and the books included in each section. The students will pay particular attention to the Gospels, where they may grow to know and love Jesus Christ more personally.

Mystery Revealed	The goal of this night is to set up the semester on Scripture by helping teens understand that God desires to be known by us. This night will remind teens that they are already perfectly known by God, but in a desire for relationship with us - he has chosen to reveal himself to us.	Exodus 3:13-15 Jeremiah 29:11-14 Matthew 16:13-20 John 8:25-30 Hebrews 1:1-2	27-35 51-53 65-67 74-95	God Made Known	Adolescents will explore how God, the origin and source of everything, communicates something about himself and how they can be open to God's presence and action in their own lives.	Psalms 8; Wisdom 13:1-5; Sirach 17:1-9; & Romans 1:19-20	31-35
WORD	To give the teens a basic understanding of Scripture that will help promote a desire for teens to read and pray Scripture. This night will give teens the fundamentals to make Scripture less intimidating. The teens will become aware of the overall structure of the Bible so they can see the big picture. Once the big picture is seen, all of the details will make sense.	Acts 8:30-31 1 Thessalonians 2:13 2 Thessalonians 2:15 2 Timothy 3:16-17 2 Peter 1:20-21 1 John 1:2-3 Hebrews 4:12 Revelation 22:18-19	81 101 105-107 140	Scripture and Tradition	Youth will learn about God's Revelation in Scripture and Tradition and how both are God's word to us today. They will consider various ways to apply God's word to their lives.	Psalms 119:105; Matthew 28:20; 1 Thessalonians 2:13; 2 Timothy 3:16-17	50, 69, 73, 80-82, 107, 133
In-Sense, Inc.	The goal for this night is to help teens understand how the same Scripture can be read in different ways. This night will also help to answer some common questions regarding Scripture. Finally, this night will also give the teens practical ways to incorporate Scripture into their daily lives.	Hebrews 4:12 2 Timothy 3:16 1 Thessalonians 2: 13 John 20: 31 2 Peter 1:19-21 Luke 24:25 2 Corinthians 10:11	105-108 109-119 1785 2653 103	Our Response of Faith	Adolescents will consider the many layers of faith, how God's Revelation requires a personal response from us, and what impact faith in Jesus Christ has and can have in their day-to-day lives.	John 3: 31-36; John 8:12; Ephesians 1:15-20; Hebrews 11: 1; John 1:5- 7	26, 153-158, 163
Piece it together	To give teens a basic understanding of how the Old Testament sets the stage for the fullness of revelation in Christ. This night will help them understand how the four major types of writing combine to tell the story of God's movement in human history.	Exodus 4:18-15:21 2 Kings 18:20-40 Psalms 89 Isaiah 61	121-123 289 128-130	Catholic Approach to Scripture	Youth will increase their understanding of a Catholic interpretation of Scripture, recognize the distinguishing characteristics of Catholic exegesis, and explore the importance of studying Scripture and learning how to connect its message to their lives.	Romans 15:4; 1 Corinthians 10:1-4, 11; & Revelation 21:1-22	109-119, 131-133

A River Runs Through It: Faith as our response to Christ	This night is about our response to God's free gift of Himself. Just as Jesus fully gave Himself to us, we are called to give completely of ourselves to God using the faith given to us in Baptism. This night will provide teens with the definition of faith and the role the Church plays in our faith.	Ephesians 4:1-6 Hebrews 11:1-6 Genesis 22: 1-19 Mark 10:46-52	150 153 161 171	God the Father	Youth will gain an appreciation of the importance of creeds and how they help us understand what it means to call God Father. They will reflect on who has provided loving care for them and how they experience and/or hope for God's care.	Matthew 11:27, 19:26; Isaiah 66:13; Psalm 131:2	186-187, 184-195, 238-240, 268-274
TRI	This is an easy one – explain the mystery of the Trinity. The night will seek to explain why would God choose to reveal Himself in terms of a relationship. It will give the teens an opportunity to relate to each person of the Trinity as distinct, yet each revealing the one, true God.	John 14:9 Matthew 11:27 John 14:17, 26 John 16:13	267 234 240 253-255	Revealed in Jesus	Youth will explore key events in Jesus' life and identify what they reveal about each Person of the Trinity. They will articulate ways people their age can participate in Jesus' mission of healing and reconciliation.	Matthew 3:16-17, 17:1-5; Mark 1:9-11, 9:2-9; John 14:15-16	257-258, 262, 436, 438, 444
Mirror Image: What Christ reveals about us	This night is about how human dignity has been restored by Christ. Our identity, holiness and purpose are found in the person of Christ. Once we know who we are in Christ, we can then begin to reveal the truth about Christ to the world through our humanity. This night will give the teens a chance to see themselves through the loving eyes of the Father. It will remind the teens who and what they are created for.	Genesis 1:26-27 Romans 8: 14-17 John 16: 24 Mark 10:17-22 Matthew 6: 9-13 Mark 6:46	1 27 51	Spirit of Life	Adolescents will examine the various ways the Spirit acts in our lives, identify Spirit-filled people of faith who are living out the Church's mission, and consider ways the Spirit could help them do the same.	Genesis 2:7; Ezekiel 37:1-14; John 14:15-16; Romans 8:9; 1 Corinthians 6:19	243-245, 263, 683-686, 692-693, 703
